

CORNVILLE ASSOCIATION MEETING MINUTES, MARCH 10, 2010

The meeting was called to order by Vice President George Dana at 7 PM; pledge of allegiance followed. He thanked Jan Graham, who was appointed to take minutes for the evening. Ted Luke, Treas., reported a balance of $2751.77.

Debbi Segall reported 28 members and 4 guests attending, and reminded everyone that dues need to be paid up in order to vote at the April Annual Meeting.

Lois Hook reported that the Egg Hunt preparations for April 3 are going well. More bikes for the raffle are needed. Many local businesses have donated toward these.

George Dana introduced candidate list for April: Lois Hook, Paul Graham, Jan Tomlinson. Deanna King, Ted Luke, and Debbi Segall are continuing their terms.

George introduced the guest speakers from local Cornville businesses:

Lorraine Ortega, Salon West, introduced her background from Enchantment, the Hilton and Sedona School of Massage. She is open Tues.-Sat. 10-5. Walk-ins are welcome.

Debby Crick from Pretty Shabby described her shop of new things, refurbished items, antiques, and crafts from LOCAL sources. She is open Tues.-Sat. 10:30-5:30.

Greg Collins of Verde Solar Power spoke of the affordability of hot water and electrical systems now. He is by Windmill Gardens and will look over anyone's electric bill to examine possible savings. There are many rebates available. His shop is solar-powered, and he has many references to check out. He also suggested checking your APS rate plan to make sure you're getting the best rate.

Laurie Wilson from Verde Valley Tile spoke of her husband's 45 yrs experience in the "old school" way. At verdevalleytile.com you can see references and examples of their work. She is a licensed decorator-consultant.

Mike from KC's Corner spoke about his local produce, meat, eggs, etc. He is planning Saturday BBQ's with local vendors when it warms up. He also carries local beer and wine, and plans a deli counter.

Grasshopper Grill owner, Andrea thanked us for our support. Hand-tossed pizza will be available soon there, and they are open 7 days/week.

Veronica Moody of toastmasters explained what the group does (helps those who are afraid of public speaking). They meet Mondays 12-1 at Cottonwood Village on Mingus in Cottonwood, and hope to establish a Cornville chapter.

Jan Tomlinson, realtor, spoke on her role in helping people through the current mortgage crisis, and how she can help you get the most if you have to sell. Her fees are negotiable.

The meeting adjourned @ 8:15 PM

Respectfully submitted,

Jan Graham, Acting Secretary
